

Donington's exciting new book competition!

This autumn we are launching an exciting new book competition.

The competition has bronze, silver and gold awards so you can participate as much as you like.

Bronze award:

To read a book from a list of famous authors and write a letter to the author explaining why you like the book and what you would change about it.

Silver award:

To read a book that has been recommended by a parent or grandparent and to give a presentation about it.

Gold award:

To choose a wrapped 'mystery' book to read and then design a webpage to promote the book.

Platinum award:

This will be awarded to the best overall competition entry.

There are prizes and certificates at each level and the overall winner will be awarded a book token at the end of term.

Happy reading!
