

Science Experiment

Chestnut Class has had lots of fun completing an experiment using chocolate! We were investigating and observing how some materials change shape when they are heated or cooled. The classroom smelt of chocolate!

