

Class Assembly about Reading

On Friday 24th November Rowan Class performed their class assembly to the whole school, parents and carers.

This term we are listening to the amazing Roald Dahl. We shared the books we have listened to and facts about his life.

Rowan Class shared their favourite books too. What a variety!

We also read poems about books.

Well done everyone!

